Improvement of the s rength a rrospects of the Inspectorate

I have had this matter before me for some time past The prese however, is a time of financial pressure, and I would rather not propose any revision which is not urgent and indispensable, and which is likely to add materially to our Education Budget We have got on fairly well for about two decades without Circle Inspectors whose resuscitation, however desira -ble, must await a more favourable opportunity unless a beginning in this direction could be made without much extra cost to Government If these important appointments are likely to necessitate the importation of trained and capable officers from outside at a cost of between 600 and 800 Rs each and i with travelling allowances, cost of establishment &c , the annual expenditure on their account would be nearly twenty thousand ~~rupees to fifteen~~, I would hesitate to press for any immediate action being taken in the matter-

Clean note

I think the scheme is well considered, economical and necessary and may be introduced as early as possible as much 'Revision' has been unnecessarily delayed already - These notes will be circulated -

2 There are, however, certain other minor matters which in my opinion require to be dealt with as early as possible Until 1899 the officers of the Tutorial and Inspection Staffs were on precisely the same footing and were inter-changeable For the first time in that year a separation was ordered but the proviso till then existent was not dispensed with that the officers concerned should be regarded as in parallel grades as regards salaries, increments &c Neither set of officers had therefore any grievance until 1899 when the prospects of one of them(Tutorial) were substantially improved, while those of the other were reserved for separate treatment It was intended that the case of the members of the Inspection Branch should be dealt with at an early date, but unfortunately no action has as yet been taken in this direction There has in consequence been a considerable hardship the removal of which should, in justice to our Deputy Inspectors, be no longer postponed These are hard-working officers several of whom were originally borne on the common list and who undoubtedly deserve to be and men to whom was restricted the benefit of our liberally conceived revision of 1909

3 Following as closely as possible the scale and classification adopted in respect of the members of the Tutorial staff, I would regulate the strength and classification of the Inspectorate as follows -

1 on 300 -- 25-- 450
(same as Class C1)
3 on 210 ---15 --- 300
(same as Class C2)
5 on 100 ---10 ----210
(same as Class C3)
5 on 50 ---10---- 100
2
(same as Class C4)

4 There are at present 9 Deputy Inspectors and five Assistant Dy Inspectors One of the latter is in independent charge of the Hindustani Schools in half the State and deserves something more than the fixed salary of Rs 50/- he now gets He deserves further to be dealt with by himself and not in common with the other Asstt. Deputy Inspectors whose duties are of a much less arduous and responsible nature

5 The total strength would remain the same, while at a small additional cost we would be assimilating, as before, the pay and those of the men of the teaching staff with whom they had always ranked and than whom they have duties by no means less onerous and responsible The first man has put in very long service and is almost on the eve of his retire-ment He has been drawing Rs 300/ for several years past and would go into the new grade of 300-25-450 in the same way as Messrs Arthanot Venkataramaiya, Cress Madhari Rao and Raghunatha Rao The third and fourth advance by one step The last man gets into the last grade of Class C The others remain where they are but with better chances of advancement, and in the case of one of them, with the rate of increment slightly raised I under-stand that the officer last mentioned (Mr Sreenivasa Rao) thinks he is entitled to be placed in Class C1 and considers himself badly treated as compared with Messrs K I Sreenivasiengar, R A Narasimhachar, Mahadeva Sastry and Venkatesa Iyengar, but he forgets (1) that he has yet several years of service to put in before he could reach the maximum pay of his grade and (2) that the officers with whom he chooses to compare himself are specialists whose cases had to be specially

He may be given Rs 4 80 at once He is reported to be a very deserving young man with en consicerations altogether exceptional

Iv proposals are extremely moderate and involve nothing more than a very small additional cost.

I have since discussed this question with ar Phabha At my request he has sent me a revised list which does not certainly err on the side of liberality and which I quite approve To some extent the fact that the promotions of the Iv Inspectors have for the past three years been deferred, has been taken into account in fixing without retrospective effect of course, the salaries to be paid to them from the date of the sanction of Government to this proposal

Circle Irs ectors seem to be an absolute necessity I am not however at present prepared to give Ir Phabha's scheme immediate effect, the cost being almost prohibitive Iet us nevertheless make a beginning provided the cost consequent thereon is not considerable I would divide the State into two Circles, to be called the Eastern and estern Circles Iet one of these circles be placed in charge of ar Phabha's Assistant r Venkatasami Naidu who as an office Assistant on his present whom the same salary ought to be able to make a good Circle Inspector Mr Bhaskara agrees. The other Circle should continue to be looked after by the Inspector General himself until further orders. Mr Venkatasami Naidu's transfer to the Inspection Branch would necessitate a small additional expenditure as follows viz,

(1)	Establishment	about	150/- rupees a month
(2)	Promotion of the I Gl's Manager, to his Personal or office Asstt on Rs 175 rising by annual increments of Rs 5/- to Rs 200/-		25/- " "
(3)	A new Manager or Head Ministerial officer on Rs 75/- to Rs 100/-		75/- " "
(4)	Travelling expenses &c of the new Circle Inspector ----------		100/- " "
		Total	350 & worth or Rs 4,200

I would not grudge this small additional expenditure, considering the great benefit expected to accrue from his arrangement. We want no new men from outside on large salaries nor any in favour of either at once retiring either Mr Ing. or Mr Arbuthnot, or of appointing the former as a Circle Inspector or of retaining the ex-

Mysore College to the 2nd grade or the Shimoga College to a High School Let the present state of things continue and at the same time let the Deputy Inspectors have their due and let one of the two Circle Inspectorships be guaranteed brought into existence without any material addition to the outgoings from the Treasury

Please prepare (VIII) Chamber's System in all Depts. I do not see any reason in the matter (but as a matter of routine) One wire & wait answer which changes news which ought to be known by 9 Nov.

I met a certain disadvantage in having no opinion on the Rules before me. The Inspector General of Education has all along been asking for two Assistant Inspectors each of whom could be placed in charge of a Circle, the State being divided into two Circles for purposes of securing efficient inspection; but the Member of Council in charge of the Department has been equally strong of opinion that such an arrangement is unnecessary. Some D.O. correspondence has passed between the Head of the Department and the Councillor in charge, and there appears to have been also personal discussions on the subject between the two Officers. I have not had the benefit of knowing what passed between them at the conference and I am also labouring under the additional disadvantage of having been absent in Bombay when some important changes were made in the Inspection Branch of the Education Department.

It would have been satisfactory if the Rules had been brought before a meeting of Council for discussion. There would not be much additional delay and a matter of one or two weeks should not be considered serious when the whole question has been pending from July last. As however the question has been referred to me for a special by circulation, I note down the opinion formed on a perusal of the papers.

At the first blush it strikes me that it is hardly a satisfactory arrangement to tack on the duties of Inspection to the Assistant to the Inspector General of Education. Mr. Trivedi has all along been asking for, and that the Government evidently intended to give him such relief in his inspection duties. In affording this relief he suggested that the State should be divided into two Circles and the Inspection work placed in charge of two Assistant Inspectors who could inspect all the Institutions except the 2nd Grade Colleges and the Institutions and classes mentioned by him. With this view he would place his Assistant entirely in charge of Inspection work and call an Assistant Inspector and put him in charge of one of the Circles, the other Circle being given to a Deputy Inspector, who was put in the higher grades of the Educational Service by Government in July last. There is already a Supernumerary Deputy Inspector, who could take the place of the Deputy Inspector promoted to Assistant Inspector. There is no additional cost involved in this arrangement except the cost of establishment amounting to Rs. 140 for the additional Circle Inspector.

The constitution of two Circles and putting them in charge of Assistant Inspectors and assigning definite duties to the Assistant Inspectors is calculated to promote a sense of responsibility and secure efficient inspection. But what I cannot understand in Mr. Chanchal's scheme is the exclusion of the College classes from the jurisdiction of the Assistant Inspector, and secondly, giving concurrent jurisdiction to the Assistant Inspectors and Deputy Inspectors in the Middle Departments of High Schools if I understand his scheme rightly.

It would have been of help to me in forming an opinion on the schemes proposed by Mr. Chanchal and by the members of Darbar, if the points on which the schemes differ had been clearly indicated.

and the reasons for modification stated. There have been alterations in Mr Bhabha's rules made in pencil which only confuse the points at issue.

Under these circumstances the only point upon which I am in a position to give a decided opinion is that there should be 2 Circles each in charge of an Assistant Inspector, and that the Assistant Inspector should inspect all schools including High School classes, which are not within the jurisdiction of Deputy Inspectors. The Ord. Grade Colleges may be reserved by the Inspector General, for his self.

In connection with this it is I have not been able to make out how Mr Bhabha should propose to burden himself with the inspection of High School classes.

Possibly this unsatisfactory arrangement is due to the exigencies of the situation compelling him to level downwards instead of levelling up. What I mean to say is that the two men whom he wishes to put in as Assistant Inspectors. One is a distinguished B.A. and the other (or Vernacular I suppose) is not qualified by his general attainments to examine High School classes. So Mr Bhabha probably proposes to limit the Assistant Inspectors to the middle department of High Schools, but this is not giving him any relief. All this confusion and the unsatisfactory compromise proposed by the Member in charge arises from attempting to adapt schemes to men and not to frame a proper scheme and then proceed to select suitable men to work it. The matter is further complicated by promoting in advance a D. Inspector (Mr V. Iyengar) who, it was well known, was unfit for higher Inspectorial work.

We have this good scheme for dividing the Inspectorate work and securing efficient inspection. One of the men who is qualified to be made Assistant Inspector and put in charge of the lower inspection work is asked to do [illegible] inspection of Tower Schools which is already being well done by Deputy Inspectors and complains that he is unable to do it because he does not know Marathi. [redacted] On the other hand we have a high paid Deputy Inspector who has lately been put into the higher grades who has a [redacted] good knowledge of Marathi but who is by education not qualified to examine the higher classes. Except on this hypothesis I cannot understand why Mr. Bhabha should wish to retain so much work in his own hands.

Would it not be more satisfactory to deal with the whole question problem once for all and make the Inspection branch as efficient as the tutorial branch by providing proper pay for the two Assistant Inspectorships and getting qualified men for them. There may be some additional cost, but we can find the necessary funds by reducing the number of Coll

Note

Mr Bhatia was at first in favor of the entertainment of two highly paid Circle Inspectors I was of opinion that for a small State like ours, this was costly luxury After some discussion, we decided upon his Assistant being given certain powers of inspection and control and upon himself being relieved of a portion of his inspection and supervision over Government passed officers accordingly Difficulties unfortunately, however, rose in connection with the duties and power to be assigned to Mr Bhabha's Assistant In this connection, Mr Bhatia thought and I agreed with him that the duties and powers of Deputy Inspectors should also be definitely laid down Mr Bhatia submitted certain draft rules which on careful consideration I modified somewhat I gave the matter my best attention and avoided making any modifications which in my opinion were not strictly unobjectionable Neither Mr Bhatia nor I lost sight of the fact that Mr Venkatarami Iyengar did not know Kannarese and that Mr Venkat Rathengar was senior Deputy Inspector Both of us however after considering the case in all its aspects, thought that the former should be required to do an important share of inspection and supervision work which he was quite competent to do, while the latter should in public interests, be left alone In making my proposal, I meant no disparagement to the latter I

I have tried to make the scheme a success and I beg that it will receive sanction. Seeing that the matter is an important one and that there has already been some delay for which I cannot disclaim responsibility, I beg to suggest that it be placed for discussion before an early meeting of Council as apparently desired by the First Councillor

I understood that the papers would not have been brought up again but sent up to the Dewan and by him submitted to His Highness as the subject was marked as being one for disposal by "Circulation" I am not sorry however that the subject has come up again for discussion for this gives me an opportunity for going over the whole question & making my suggestions for placing the Inspectoral branch of the Educational deptt on an efficient and satisfactory basis The question has been long pending & it is time that we dealt with it in a satisfactory manner once for all. Reorganisation of the Inspectorate

1 Before 1878 there were in Mysore a D P I 2 circle Inspectors some Deputy Inspectors and a number of Sub-Deputy Inspectors about thirt

2 After the great famine of 1877, with a view to retrench expenditure Government abolished the Circle Inspectorships and fixed the number of Deputy Inspectorships at 4 from 1878 The number of public Schools in 1878 was 928 and of Scholars 31,797 On June 30, 1902, the number of public schools was 2,231 and of pupils 91 236

3 About 1883 the designation of D P I , was altered to Education Secretary

4 In 1892 the grade of Sub Deputy Inspectors was abolished, as these low paid officers proved to be inefficient and untrustworthy, the number of Deput Inspectors was increased to 8, one for each district, and four Assistant Deput Inspectors for Canada schools and one more for Hindustani schools were appointed

5 In 1895 the head of the department who from 1883 was called Education Secretary was designated Inspector General of Education

6 The Tutorial branch of the Subordinate service was largely strengthened and the pay of Principals, Professors, Head Masters, and Assistant Masters several times revised and increased on a most liberal scale The Inspection Branch though it too has been revised has not yet been placed on a satisfactory basis In neither the number of Inspecting Officers nor the quality of the agency employed is the Inspecting staff of Mysore adequate H E the Viceroy considers it absolutely necessary to to make adequate provision for Inspecting Officers in every Province if real progress in Education is to be achieved

7 The Mysore Department comes nearest to that of the Central Provinces The figures of public schools and scholars for both departments are as follows -

Central Provinces No of scholars 127 951

Colleges 5, High Schools 21, Lower Secondary Schools 204

Primary Schools 2008, Special Schools 12

Total 2250

Mysore, No of Scholars 91 236

Colleges 8 High Schools 14, Lower Secondary Schools 223, Primary Schools 2028, Special Schools 53, Total 2331

The total expenditure from all sources in the central Provinces was in 1901-01 Rs 11,10,972, that in Mysore was Rs 11, 3 976

The Inspecting Staffs of the two departments compare as follows

Central Provinces (excluding feudatory states)

Inspector General 1, Inspectors 3, Deputy Inspectors 2, Joint Inspectors or Assistant Deputies 25

Mysore

Inspector General 1, Inspectors 0, Deputy Inspectors 9, Assistant Deputies Sub Deputies 0

8 The percentage of the cost of Direction and Inspection to total expenditure from Provincial funds in Mysore is the lowest in all India It is 11 71 in Mysore 28 87 in the Central Provinces 25 09 in Burmah 21 09 in Berar, 17 3 in Bengal, 16 78 in Madras, and 12 13 in Bombay

9 It is absolutely necessary that the two Circle Inspectorships should be revived in Mysore At present the full number of schools is in no district inspected and examined though the staff works hard and energetically That Inspection and control are satisfactory under the present imperfect arrangements is due chiefly to the constant vigilence and untiring industry of the head of the Department In 1378 the first Circle Inspectof was paid Rs 500/ rising to Rs 700/and the second Circle Inspector was paid Rs 300/rising to Rs 500/ A similar scale may be revived now The State's revenues reve ues oarely came up to 100 lakns and tne State was loaded witn a debt of 80 lakns of rupees when the re--dictions of 1878 were made The in--come has nearly doubled itself now and the State has savings at its cre--dit

10 When Circle Inspectors are appointed, the Inspector General will besides performing the ordinary duties of Director and head of the Education Department inspect as many schools of every grade as he can, and will have time to attend to the ad--vancement of education in new di--rections or among classes which have not yet been brought within the sphere of the department, to the co--dification of all educational rules to the wider extension of primary and industrial education, to annual conferences of Inspecting officers and Head Masters and similar other important measures for which he can afford no time at present

11 The rules defining the powers and duties of the Inspecting officers should be generally approv--ed by Government The Council is not in a position to discuss and ap--prove of each rule It should be left to the Inspector General to propose amendments and alterations as the need for them may arise in course of time

Minute of dissent by the First Councillor dated 2nd July 1903

I am still of opinion that the proposal to appoint only one Officer of a higher grade than Deputy Inspectors is a very imperfect and unsatisfactory arrangement What is wanted is to relieve both the I C and the Deputy Inspectors of the abnormal amount of work and responsibility thrown upon them Successive annual reports of Public Instruction clearly shew that in no District has the work of inspection been fully or satisfactorily done Before the final orders are issued , I am strongly of opinion that this important subject should be reconsidered in the light of the remarks contained in my former notes on the subject dated 11th January 1901 and 26th April 1903 and 21st June 1903

I entirely disapprove of the changes that have been made in the original Rules regarding the powers and duties of Inspecting Officers submitted by the I C for approval in July 1902 In the original rules certain classes of schools , about 100 in number were definitely assigned for inspection to the Assistant This number was small enough for a years work But in the amended Rules only such schools in the Districts assigned to him, presumably four , as are not immediately under the control of Deputy or Assistant Deputy Inspectors will be inspected by him , that is to say, about 4 High

I am agreeable to the proposals of the D G of Education which I consider to be well considered & worthy of adoption & may be circulated for Council with the permission of the Offg Member Perhaps Simple Inspectors will suffice for the Inspectors' to already appropriated for very petty charges in the Rev Department

School Departments , one ormal School , and two industrial schools An work beyond this is left to his choice Although he will be out on tour for not less than 200days the number of schools he has to inspect being limited he may irspect only as many others as he may choose to inspect Again if the Assistant is not to keep a record of the services of all teachers in his Districts , it will be impossible for him to grant leave or give promotion or even inflict punishments without such a history It is absolutely necessary that he should keep a history of the services of all his subordinates I consider the changes made in the original rules such as to render the appointment of Mr Venkatasami Naidu on inspection duty almost useless , for with the exception of the inspection of a few schools , he can help the I G in the general control of the department just as much in his present office as when he becomes an inspecting officer I would therefore emphatically protest against any changes being made in the rules originally submitted by the I G and recommend that they may be sanctioned in the form in which they were proposed

But I must confess that the whole scheme as now placed before Council appears to me to be an unsatisfactory makeshift and not as an attempt to deal seriously with a question affecting the permanent interests of such an important branch of the administration as public instruction and this does not come before ~~now~~ us for the first time

Submitted to His Highness.

The rules for the guidance of the Inspecting Staff of the Educational Dept are now submitted for the approval of His Highness - They have undergone thorough discussion between the H.E. Counsellor and the Inspector General Education one and again between me and the latter after - the rules were gone into by one and they were agreed to by the D.General The papers were first circulated and then discussed in Council. With regard to the details of the rules I do not think there exists any difference of opinion although the Jt. Counsellor observed that the Council is not in a position to discuss the details and that they might be left to the Inspector General -

There is however some difference which does not directly refer to the rules under ments made at an earlier date for the improvement of the Inspecting Staff generally, and for utilising the staff of the Inspector General of H+ Education for inspection work also - In these arrangements the existing Dy Inspectors were put on duties by - and the Dy of Edn was empowered to divide the whole Province between himself & his staff for inspection work - ~~[illegible]~~

With reference to this latter arrangement the Dy objected to the name of staff & Dy & continued to Mr Venkata Sawmy Naidu after he was deputed for inspection work and proposed that he should be called staff Inspectors - as did also the Senior Dy & Inspector Mr Venkata Sathi Ayengar. Under certain other arrangements made in connection with the Mysore Maharanee's College one Mr Ramalauchar had been taken on temporarily as a supernumerary in the Inspectoral staff and Mr Shabha argued that if this Mr Venkata Sathi Ayengar was withdrawn the number of Dy Inspectors would have remained the same - and there would have been two staff Inspectors by Venkata Sawmi & Venkata Sathi Ayengar without [illegible] Venkata Sathi Dy an additional increasing the cost This argument was however fallacious as Mr Krumbegal has been sure, I understand, incorporated with the ordinary charges as Mr Kesavayya was ordered by H H to be retired — It was, under the circumstances, decided that the Deputy Inspectors including Mr Venkata for the Ryzar should as before be in charge of Distts and that the Province should be divided for higher inspection between the Ry and Mys Distt In other words the proposal to appoint Circle Inspectors or Distt Inspectors in charge of Circles was deferred but not negatived

The 1st Commissioner now argues in favour of Distts being the Circle Inspectors at once and also cancels the arrangements made in 1902 for the improvement of the Inspectors Staff He also draws a distinction between the qualifications of Mr Venkata Sawmy Naidu and Venkata for the Ryzar adds Mr Bhatha proposed both appointments strictly on the same days of work—

The question now is whether the rules as now framed should be approved, or whether the broader the question of appointing Circle Inspectors should be opened and considered at once - In his note of 24 V 02 the II Comptroller estimated the annual cost roughly at Rs 2 5000 and the question thus viewed becomes one of finance and resolves itself to whether this money can be added to the already overgrown Educational Budget which has steadily increased during the last two or three years as shown in the margin -

It is not denied that Circle Inspectors are necessary but the development it is submitted should be prospective and not sudden - The state of the finance cannot be overlooked and in my humble opinion the Educational Deptt has not been refused its share of the increase - year after year To do more at once seems an unwise step financial and by taking a little time I think the gradual development will in no manner be checked and the gradual relief which the Head of the Deptt obtained is all that is desired - Under the present arrangements he will be relieved of his inspection work over

Rules defining the powers and duties of the Assistant to the Inspector General of Educatio deputed for inspection work and of the Deput and Assistant Deputy Inspectors of Schools

1130 ## Order

After full discussion of the Case with the Dewan & Mr Bhabha, I sanction the introduction of the rules But I understand that the arrangements sanctioned in the G Os of July 1902 a merely temporary and I desire that the whole question of the Inspecting Staff may be reconsidered at an early date with a view to placing it on a Satisfactory & fairly permanent basis So this the Dewan cordially agrees The practical working of the temporary arrangement will doubtless assist us in deciding on permanent requirem

Memorandum of the Inspector General of Education on the reorganisation of the Inspection staffs — the Education Office

Dated 1 July 1907

Now that Mr M K Tirumalachar Br has been transferred to the Inspectorate Branch as Deputy Inspector and Mr T K Venkatasami Naidu is also to be given inspection work, I submit it would be well to have no class for Deputy Inspectors corresponding to Class II, and to form a class corresponding to Class I for the superior grade of two Inspecting Officers for the East & West Circles Mr Venkatai Rs 300 - 25 - 500 Mr B Venkatasubbiah also may be placed in the same class the highest class for Deputy Inspectors may remain as now arranged on Rs 210 15 - 300 When Mr Venkatasubbiah is promoted, the vacant Deputy Inspectorship will be filled by Mr Tirumalachar

I have had a conversation with the Director of Public Instruction on the subject and he agrees with the proposal. I would therefore recommend for Government sanction the creation of the two posts of Inspectors mentioned above and the transfer of the two Deputy Inspectors mentioned above to the Inspecting Staff. The additional cost involved will be Rs 1,200 per annum. The Director of Public Instruction has also been consulted

2 W Venkatasamy Naidu & Sd Venkatapatungar may be designated Inspr and Inspectrs, & placed each in charge of four districts above the Deputy Inspectrs The classification of Inspecting Officers in British India is as follows

1 Inspectrs

2 Assistant Inspectrs

3 Deputy or Sub Assistant Inspectrs

4 Assistant Deputy Inspectrs (In Madras in place of Assistant Dept Inspectrs, Inspecting schoolmasters are employed)

The Officers of the grade of Inspectrs are paid from Rs 500 to 1500, and they inspect Second Grade Colleges & High Schools The Assistant Inspectrs inspect Middle Schools W Venkatasamy & Sd Venkatapatungar by their educational qualifications may well correspond to Assistant Inspectrs in British India they will not be able to examine Second Grade Colleges & High Schools It seems to me appropriate to call them Assistant Inspectrs

3 Mr K Tirumalachar it was intended should be put in charge of a District with the usual establishment of three writers and three peons the appointment of Mr B Venkatapathiyar as Assistant Inspector will necessitate the entertainment of the following Office establishment which will be the same as what has been sanctioned for Mr Venkatasawmy

	Rs
Head Clerk	40
2nd Clerk	30
3rd Clerk	20
4th Clerk & Record Keeper	15
Head Peon	8
4 Peons at 7 each	28
Office contingencies	5
Rs	146

Of stationery from the Govt depot as supplied the Assistant Inspectors, the small contingent allowance of Rs 5 will do

4 The exact powers & duties of the Assistant Inspectors, Deputy-Inspectors & Assistant Deputy Inspectors will be defined, so that there may be no conflict of jurisdiction or authority

5- I submit that the place of Manager in the Office of the Inspector General may be filled by an Officer of Class "IV" on Rs 70 or 80, the place in the Tutorial branch being filled by a younger man commencing on Rs 50 If there not enough to get a good man from class "IV", promotions may be given in rotation to the existing hands in the Office & one of them appointed manager on Rs 75-5-100 as at present proposed

6 I commend these suggestions to the favourable consideration of Government refused to take up inspection work on the ground that he did not know Kanarese. He has with considerable reluctance consented to take up the duties assigned to him, on condition that he will not be compelled to examine any schools in the West Circle for a year or so. He will only inspect them, all the schools as at present being examined by the Deputy & Assistant Deputy Inspectors, until he acquires a sufficient knowledge of Kanarese after about a year he will examine the schools which are placed directly under his charge.

You will see that I have reserv for myself with the High School Departments, the Second Grade Colleges, Industrial Schools & Normal Schools, and of course I shall inspect as many of the other schools not directly under me as possible.

If you approve of the rules, I shall submit them formally. If there is anything in them or which you would like to talk to me, I shall be at your service

The designation 'Assistant to the Dy' will be misleading when Mr Venkataramu performs the duties now assigned to him. It is wrong in appropriate but also inconvenient. It may be altered to 'Assistant Inspector' I spoke to the Dewan[15] on the subject some days back about altering the designation and he said that he had no objection to the alteration & that it might be proposed If you have no objection to the alteration I shall officially propose to the designation Assistant to the D.G. is appropriate only to the Head Assistant of the office

Secretary to Government Revenue & General Departments

Ed. 5599/02 SDS

SIR,

With reference to para 4 of Order No 808-10/Ed 19 dated 15th July 1902 I have the honour to submit for general approval a set of rules defining the powers and duties of the Assistant to the Inspector General of Education These rules were submitted to the Second Councillor with a D O dated 30th July 1902 The approval o Government is awaited for the purpose of giving effect to Order No 806-7/Ed 18 dated Bangalore 15th July 1902

2 I would submit once more that the designation of Assis tant to the Inspector General by which Mr Venkataswami Nayudu is known in my office may be altered to Assistant Inspector when Ins pection duties are assigned to him. The former designation is in my opinion inappropriate when applied to an Inspecting Officer

3 I would also submit that as there is a supernumerary Deputy Inspector Mr M K Tirumalachar B A now temporarily attache to the Mysore District he may be placed in charge of a District and the oldest Deputy Inspector Mr B Venkatapatiengar may be give the same powers and duties as Mr Venkataswami Nayudu in respect of the districts of Bangalore, Kolar, Tumkur and Chitaldrug Or Mr Venkataswami Nayudu may be placed in charge of the Eastern districts and Mr Venkatapatiengar in charge of the Western districts The additional cost to Government will be merely that of an office establishment such as has been sanctioned for Mr Venkatasami Naidu or Rs 146 a month, while the advantages of a symmetrical organisation for the Eastern and Western Divisions of the Province will be great.

4. With all due deference to the views of Government expressed in para 6 of Order No 808-10/Ed 19 dated 15th July 1902 I submit that as every district is already provided with a Deputy Inspector any addition to the Inspecting staff intended to give relief to the Inspector Gereral as well as the Deputy Inspectors of districts can be no other than that of one or preferably two Assistant Inspectors of higher rank than Deputy Inspectors but subordinate to the Inspector General with powers and duties defined as in the rules herewith submitted. I need hardly add that if Governrent are pleased according to the above recommendations to sanction the appointment of two Assistant Inspectors, necessary alterations will be made in the enclosed rules to suit the new conditions

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
